U.S. Agrees to Red Plan on U.N. Chief

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United States today was reported to have agreed in the main to a Soviet plan for picking a temporary U. N. secretary-general. Support was building up for U Thant of Burma to take over the vital executive position.

The U. S. stand increased hopes that a way will be found to break the U.S.-Soviet deadlock with its threat of paralysis for the administrative arm of the world organization.

Dems Adopt Platform, OK City Charter

A platform calling for effective "home rule" government upon adoption of a city charter was adopted Wednesday night by the Salem Democrat Central Committee which also called for a full-time mayor and completion of already-planned community projects.

The charter itself was endorsed unanimously.

The meeting, held at the Memorial Building, was presided over by Mrs. Mary Bryan, co-chairman, in the absence of Chairman William Steffell, who is recovering from recent surgery.

The adopted platform listed:

1. The mayor shall devote full time to his office.
2. Develop effective "home rule" government under the Charter upon its adoption.
3. Pursue to completion the W. State St. overpass.
4. Installation of "Walk" lights in the business district.
5. Capital improvement — Continuation of street lighting, street and sidewalk improvement program.
6. Park and Recreation — Continued development of city-wide recreation facilities, including fishing at city reservoir.
7. Publication of city financial report quarterly.
8. Full cooperation with local civil defense effort.
9. Continued development of Salem's Master Plan.
10. Avail ourselves of all possible federal and state assistance in development of local projects.
11. Continued effort to keep Route 62 close to Salem.

Harold Astory and Ben Barrett are co-chairmen for the Democrats fall election campaign.

United Fund Is Swelled To $31,067

Salem's two - day old United Fund campaign sailed along today with a total of $31,067.75 reported on hand in cash and pledges.

This is 38 per cent of the $81,76 goal and Drive Co-Chairmen James T. Schaeffer and Horace K. Schwartz were highly encouraged by the quick response of townspeople as canvassers made their rounds.

Members of the 12 United Fund teams are working on assigned territories. Team captains are meeting each morning with the chairman at the Red Cross office to make their reports and receive briefings.

The Red Cross Gray Ladies are telephoning individual solicitors to make sure they are completing their assigned tasks so that the United Fund drive can be completed by next Thursday. A "Victory Meeting" is planned that evening.

The United Fund affects the operations of 13 local "red feather" agencies.

American-Standard Sale Believed Near

The oft-rumored but anticipated sale of the American - Standard plant here to a group of local industrialists may come next week, it was indicated today.

Officials of the American Radiator and Standard Sanitary Corp. denied in New York today that the action had been taken for the sale of its holdings in Salem and Warren but there were other developments which indicated that the sale soon may be made.

If it occurs, American-Standard will have complied with a U. S. Justice Department order of more than a year ago that the firm divest itself of its Youngstown Kitchen Division because of an anti-trust violation.

A hearing on the suit is scheduled for Monday in U. S. District Court at Pittsburgh and officers of the United Steelworkers union No. 1538 at the local American-Standard plant are planning to attend.

Second Shooting Incident Occurs On Berlin Border

$250,000 Project Had Long Delay

Washingtonville to Begin Using Its New Sewage Plant

WASHINGTONVILLE — This community's long-awaited sewage treatment plant is ready to go into operation.

In fact, Oct. 31 has been set as the deadline for residents to complete their line tap-ins, announced D. B. Weikart, president of the Board of Public Affairs.

The aeration-type sewage plant just east of town is completed and all of the nearly three miles of sanitary sewer lines through out the village has been laid.

The $250,000 project was financed by $130,000 in mortgage revenue bonds, a $19,000 federal grant and two bond issues approved by residents, one for $35,000 and the other $27,000.

The mortgage revenue bonds are being paid for through a flat $5 a month sewer rental fee. The tap-in fee is $65.

The sewer lines will accommodate far more than the estimated 280 homes that will use the new facilities, Weikart estimated. Some residences have had septic tanks and others the old-fashioned outside toilets.

Theodore Dastoli of Youngstown has been consulting engineer for the project. The Columbiana County Health Department named Robert Bertolette to approve sewer line connections from the residences.

Weikart emphasized again that all tap-ins should be completed by Oct. 31.

Washingtonville's sewer improvement actually began three years ago but the original contractor, Emerson R. Braun, a former Warren and Salem contractor, was sent to prison after his performance bond was found to have been forged and was worthless. He was found guilty by a jury of altering the bond and was sentenced to the Ohio penitentiary for a one-to-20 year term by Judge Joel H. Sharp.

Braun had installed about one third of the sewer line when the forgery was discovered. Part of the line had to be dug up and relaid because of faulty installation.

After a 19-month delay, caused by Braun's arrest and subsequent trial, the project was resumed. Washingtonville officials awarded the ditch excavation job to Walter A. Rupert and let the sewage plant contract to the J. W. Finch Co. of Youngstown.

Financier Named Nixon 'Mouthpiece'

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Goodwin J. Knight has named Los Angeles financier J. Howard Edgerton as the man he says tried to lure him out of the 1962 governor's race.

Knight, California's governor from 1953-58, said Edgerton acted on behalf of former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, now in a bitter struggle with Knight for the Republican's gubernatorial nomination. Nixon and Edgerton denied the accusation.

Knight, 64, told a nationally televised news conference on Wednesday that:

Nixon told Knight that Edgerton would contact him on Nixon's behalf, and that Edgerton later offered him, Knight, any state job he wanted—up to chief justice of California's Supreme Court—if he would withdraw.

Knight had made the charges before—but had not identified Edgerton until Wednesday's news conference. He also presented to newsmen his wife Virginia and Sacramento attorney Paul Mason, Knight's former state motor vehicle director. Both said they overheard the Sept. 8 telephone call when the alleged offer was made.

Knight gave this version of the sequence of events leading to the Sept. 8 phone call:

June 20, 1961—Knight met Nixon at a Los Angeles reception. Nixon said: "I still want to have a talk with you."

July 18 or 19—Edgerton phoned Knight, said Nixon had asked Edgerton to talk with Knight about Knight's plans.

July 29 — Knight and Nixon talked briefly. Nixon said: "You will be hearing from Howard Edgerton very soon."

Sometime later—Edgerton invited Knight to lunch with him Aug. 3. Edgerton told Knight that Nixon doesn't want to run. Knight repeated he'll run.

Aug. 7—Knight, Nixon and Edgerton met at Nixon's home. Nixon said he doesn't want to run for governor, believes Knight could be elected, says he will endorse him. Nixon said he'll come

Ford, UAW Push Local Contracts

DETROIT (AP) — Ford Motor Co. and the United Auto Workers Union planned to keep the phone lines humming today in a concerted effort to get the company back into car production by the first of next week.

Their top negotiators decided Wednesday the best way to end the strike that shut down Ford plants from coast to coast Tuesday was to give priority to effecting settlements on working conditions at individual plants.

UAW President Walter P. Reuther and Ford's vice president for labor relations, Malcolm L. Denise, postponed further discussions on a national contract on working conditions until 2 p.m. Friday.

Denise agreed with Reuther's suggestion the time could be spent more profitably by the union and the company setting up direct phone contacts with the plants to clear away the roadblock of local disputes.

About half of the union's 85 bargaining units have completed settlements with plant managers on problems as washup time, park-

Memorial Building Is Center For Many

Whether a person is 5 years old or 85, male or female—whatever his age, sex, color or creed—there is a place for him and something for him to do at the Memorial Building.

If he is interested in athletics, collects stamps or coins, takes pictures, likes to play cards, watches movies or wants to learn to paint, here again is a place where a person can go to pursue his hobby.

The Memorial Building is managed by C. F. "Rusty" Tomlinson who also is Salem's superintendent of parks and recreation department.

"Salem is fortunate in having a community building such as the World War Memorial Building," Tomlinson remarked. "We owe a deep debt of gratitude to those far-sighted folks who made this possible."

"But," Tomlinson continued, "the best made building of brick and wood is useless unless it is maintained and used, and this takes money—money which must come from the United Fund — money which will not be available unless Salem supports this United Appeal with their dollars as well as their good wishes.

W. German Views On Berlin Sought

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States was reported today to be seeking from the West Germans a clearer view of their policy on the Berlin issue as President Kennedy prepared for a meeting Friday with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko.

In advance of the Kennedy-Gromyko talk, Secretary of State Dean Rusk was advising Western Allies on his discussions with the Soviet Minister. He was giving particular attention to West Germany.

Informants said Rusk had an unannounced appointment with German Ambassador Wilhelm Grewe late Wednesday. The U.S. ambassador to Bonn, Walter Dowling, was called to Washington for consultations. He is expected to arrive Sunday.

Rusk was reported seeking a more comprehensive policy from the Germans on the Berlin-Germany issue now that the Sept. 17 West German elections are over. This is important to the Allies in shaping a common position in possible East-West negotiations.

The Kennedy-Gromyko meeting, in which Rusk will participate, is a windup to a series of three talks Rusk had with the Soviet minister in New York in a probe of Kremlin intentions toward Germany.

Premier Khrushchev has declared he will sign a peace treaty with Communist East Germany but has not made clear how this would affect the West's position in Berlin.

U.S. sources said it is premature to regard the Rusk-Gromyko talks as indicating Soviet willingness to negotiate on a basis acceptable to the West. They said the limited progress in the discussions gives grounds for neither optimism nor pessimism.

7-Year Old Girl Found Brutally Slain

ELMHURST, Ill. (AP)—A 7-year-old girl, riding a bicycle on an errand for her father, was brutally slain in a field a few blocks from her home Wednesday.

Sheriff's officials said the blue-eyed, blonde-haired girl, Yvonne Elliott, had been dragged from her bicycle, bound and gagged, sexually molested and apparently strangled.

The child's nude body, with her hands tied behind her back with a soiled rag and with another rag stuffed in her mouth, was found by her father, Edward Elliott, 27, a machine setter. The slayer had taken the girl's long-sleeved red shirt and knotted it tightly around her throat.

Elliott had sent Yvonne to a store five blocks from their home in this Chicago suburb to get him some cigarettes.

"It was still light outside, I thought nothing of it. My God, this is awful," he said.

When Yvonne had not returned from the store an hour after she left home, Elliott told deputies, he walked down the street and found her bicycle alongside a field of tall weeds. He ran home and telephoned his wife, Loretta, 24, who was at work. Then he and a neighbor set out with flashlights to search the field.

Elliott said his wife arrived at the field just as he came upon his daughter's body.

Red Officer Fires Bullet at West German

Brandt Requests Reinforcement of W. Berlin Police

BERLIN (AP)—Communist police fired across Berlin's brick curtain today, the second such incident in less than 24 hours, adding to the trigger tension of this divided city.

West Berlin police said Communist police threw rocks across the wall at Bernauerstrasse and a Red police officer fired a single shot from his submachine gun at a West Berlin policeman. No one was hurt.

West and East Berlin police traded fire Wednesday night across the border at Bernauerstrasse and an East German policeman was wounded.

Occurred During Chase

The first incident occurred during a chase of two East German refugees across border rooftops. One refugee, crying "freedom," plunged to his death when he jumped five stories and missed a West Berlin fireman's net. The other refugee was captured by the East Germans and taken away.

As a result of the two incidents, Mayor Willy Brandt disclosed he was discussing with the Western powers the reinforcement of West Berlin police to make the borders secure. The shooting of the East German policeman was expected to raise a diplomatic storm.

West Berlin police gave this account of today's incident:

Vopos, Communist police, threw rocks across the wall into West Berlin. One rock smashed the windshield of a truck on the roadway. A police patrol car was called, and an officer went up to the wall and called out to the Vopos to stop throwing rocks.

A Vopo officer approached the wall, aimed his submachine gun and shouted, "Go back." Then the Vopo fired at the police officer.

Girl Testifies In Trial of American Held on Spy Count

WASHINGTON (AP) — A thin, dark-haired Polish girl is expected today to continue unfolding the story of her love affair with a married American diplomat that led to his arrest on a charge of giving secret documents to Polish Red agents.

She told Wednesday how Polish police burst into her room on Koszykowa street in Warsaw last Dec. 22 and photographed her in bed and undressed with Irvin C. Scarbeck, 41, at that time second secretary of the U.S. Embassy in Warsaw.

The girl, Ursula Discher, 22, spoke haltingly through an interpreter in federal court, where Scarbeck is on trial for turning over four secret embassy papers to Communist agents. He is said to have been blackmailed by the Red agents.

Last April, Scarbeck engineered the girl's escape from Poland by having a West German friend send her a fake telegram that her nonexistent brother was dying in a Frankfurt hospital. With this, she was able to get a visa from Polish authorities.

The German, Frankfurt police official Friedrich Cordes, told how Scarbeck arranged the hoax telegram and how he joined Miss Discher in Frankfurt. Cordes said she lived with Scarbeck in his apartment there and that Scarbeck paid for a doctor to treat a serious illness she had. Scarbeck later returned to the United States and was arrested here June 13.

Scarbeck's wife, Karen, 37, by whom he has three children, sat through Miss Discher's testimony without visible emotion. She has said she's sticking by her husband.

During Cordes' testimony, Mrs. Scarbeck was allowed to sit at the defense table to help with the interpreting job. She is German-born and met Scarbeck while he was serving in Germany. They exchanged smiles and a few words as she joined him at the table.

Miss Discher said when the police agents burst in on her and Scarbeck, they called her a prostitute and hauled her off to a police station. There they suggested, in the interpreter's words, that "as you are acquainted with an American who happens to be a diplomat, could you cooperate with us?"

The nature of the cooperation was not immediately brought out.

POLICE ARE MARKSMEN

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Seventeen law enforcement officers proved at the third annual Stark County Pistol Match Wednesday they could hit a man with nine out of ten shots—any one of which could have been fatal.

Dan Alteri, an auxiliary sheriff who won in 1960, led the 40 shooters with a near perfect 99.6 score. Next was Deputy Sheriff James Otto, 98, followed by Canton policeman Edward Roman, 97.4, and FBI agent Harold Weida, 97.2.

Sanity Is the Question

The United States wants to save the United Nations. It wants to save West Berlin. Why? For the same reason.

It is trying to save the sanity of the civilized world.

If the United Nations were to be scuttled by irrational men who fear it because it is the last refuge of reason — if West Berlin were to be overpowered by terrorists driven to fury by its attractiveness to East Germans — the blow would not be to an organization and a city but of the sanity of civilized man.

Three speeches before the U.N. General Assembly last week summed up the issue. Unfortunately, only a handful of the people involved in the showdown now taking place in the General Assembly ever will know what is being decided in behalf of the hundreds of millions of people whose lives would be wiped out if insanity routed reason.

PRESIDENT KENNEDY called for a truce to terror.

"The great question which confronted this body in 1945 is still before us," he said. "It is whether man's cherished hopes for progress and peace are to be destroyed by terror and disruption; whether the 'foul winds of war' can be tamed in time to free the cooling winds of reason, and whether the pledges of our Charter are to be fulfilled or defied — pledges to secure peace, progress, human rights and world law."

To show the good faith of the United States, President Kennedy proposed a progressive program of disarmament to relieve terrorism and the imminent possibility of nuclear destruction if one madman were to run amuck long enough to explode the first bomb.

LORD HOME, British foreign secretary, told the General Assembly that 16 years after the folly and waste of World War II "we stand mocked and disgraced by our own performance."

The United Nations is still faced with the stark choice of whether the civilized world is to live or die, Lord Home declared — not whether the United Nations is going to live or die, which is the shallow interpretation of the issue by critics who curse it for its imperfections, but whether the civilized world is going to live.

Both President Kennedy and Lord Home concede that the United Nations is an imperfect instrument for international security. But in its absence there would be no instrument at all.

THE FOREIGN minister of the Soviet Union, Andrei A. Gromyko, sketched in the alternative to the U.N.'s less-than-perfect existence in his speech to the General Assembly.

The alternative would be unopposed return to a credo that the civilized world has been trying to outlaw since the Kellogg-Briand Treaty of 1929 renounced war as an instrument of national policy.

Once more, would make right.

The Communist Conspiracy would have license to roam at will over the earth — "exploiting civil strife," in the words of Lord Home. Collective security wouldn't even be a wishful thought. It would be a dog-eat-dog world.

Russia would face no organized opposition to its psychopathic urge for endless revenge on the Germans — a state of mind so obsessive with the leading figures of the Kremlin that Mr. Gromyko simply ignored reassurances by both President Kennedy and Lord Home that there would be no interference with Russia's desire to make a treaty with East Germany.

THE WEST does not assume it is sane and that only Russian Communists have departed from their senses; that is not the shape of the issue.

The issue is between sanity and insanity in the mid-20th-century world. Voices among the Western Allies are urging war, too. There are voices urging destruction of the United Nations because it has been unable to change the savagery of mankind. But they are not the voices of allied governments; they are not official.

It is only the Soviet Union that is officially rattling rockets and threatening war.

"Every man, woman and child lives under a nuclear sword of Damocles, hanging by the slenderest of threads, capable of being cut at any moment by accident, or miscalculation, or by madness," declared President Kennedy. "The weapons of war must be abolished before they abolish us."

"I am sure the Russian people don't want to be incinerated any more than the British people but they stand in equal danger if we don't stop squabbling," said Lord Home.

Unless the Soviet Union is given what it wants, threatened Foreign Minister Gromyko, "no one will be able to guarantee that events will not overstep the fatal boundary."

THE CHALLENGE is to human reason, not to the United Nations.

The issue is whether civilization can save itself, not whether one of its newer institutions can be saved.

The question is not what will happen in Berlin but what will happen in the minds of those who will decide what to do about Berlin.

The question in its broadest sense is what is happening in the minds of all men capable of understanding why war would be insanity; why sanity can survive only by agreement to keep peace.

The question is personal in the final analysis: What is happening in your mind?

Horse sense is just good old stable thinking.

Prices make people toe the mark so they can foot the bills.

Wild Middle-East Show

Inside Labor By Victor Riesel

HOUSTON, Tex.

After hedge-hopping this country of ours for some 5,000 miles, I find there are racketeers and racketeers. Not all use guns and muscle. Some pick the pockets of American families with a manicured finesse which nets more than a billion crooked dollars a year. These are the operators I had thought went out with Barnum's stuffed elephant.

They chisel the consumers, and mightily few people seem to care or are concerned over the fact that there are more consumers' rackets — some of them literally lethal — than there are columns in a Greek ruin.

So I contacted a crusading fellow and said to hell with anonymity, let's expose this.

He is Leo Perlis, national director of the AFL-CIO's Community Service Activities. He too has been hedge-hopping. We made contact and he started by saying: "You ask how much the American people are bilked yearly."

"I have found the best figures available come from the Association of Better Business Bureaus which estimates that in any one year about $500 million is spent for phony home repairs alone."

"ABOUT $100 MILLION is lost in dieting aids, pills etc. which couldn't reduce a cake of ice in a hot house. About $200 million is thrown away on phony charities and causes of all kinds; about $50 million goes for quack cancer cures (and that's a low estimate); and about $100 million to $150 million is lost in stock frauds."

Throw in about $25 million in overcharges for spurious insurance. Then add in all the shoddy merchandise and phony services, the figures come to well over $1 billion a year out of the pockets of men and women who work for their wages and salaries."

Perlis was just warming up. "A major area," he said, "in which the public takes it on the chin is interest payments. Many people who think they're paying 6 per cent interest are shocked to find it is really 12 to 14 per cent."

For example, we have run into vacuum cleaners marked for sale at $69, or $2 per week a year. This adds up to $104. The customer is paying $35 for these 'easy payments.'

"In some cases, interest on this type of crooked sales, which hurts the legitimate retailers, runs as high as 50 per cent."

"Point out, will you, that these unethical merchants, who hurt the legitimate retailers, do not sell merchandise — but debts. In some cases the profit on the debt is higher than on the sale of merchandise."

I RAN INTO a lot of charity appeals during this trek. I found legitimate charities which are not doing much probing of all the men to whom they are throwing testimonial dinners — and which someday will be embarrassed. But these are not the ones about which I queried Mr. Perlis. I asked about the charity rackets.

"We estimated," he said, "that the people of Los Angeles waste $25 million each year on phony 'causes.'"

"On the other coast, the people of New York City probably give some $40 million to these fakes. We have found that in some cases about 80 per cent to 90 per cent of the money raised for good causes, goes into the pockets of unscrupulous money raisers."

Perlis then added that no one force can fully police and educate at the same time in this field. Labor and management must work together — and do frequently.

"In Washington, D.C., representatives of the American Hotel Association joined with us in labor to fight for an order from the Agricultural Department on ham. We wanted the watering of ham curbed."

"Sound silly? It isn't. You'd be surprised how much weight that adds and how many dollars are spent for just water. Until Sept. 2, meat suppliers could legally add 10 per cent moisture to the ham. But we won. That's over."

PERLIS REELED OFF other instances. In Columbus, Ohio the Manufacturers Association, the Retail Merchants Association and the Better Business Bureau joined with the Community Services' labor people to fight for a better garnish law. They won.

Now bad debts can be collected. But crooks can't put their hands on as much of the workers' wages as they did in the past, Perlis reckoned.

In Des Moines union members, taking one of the consumer counseling courses Perlis' group runs in some 35 cities, wanted advice on how to avoid fake stock shares. Labor people now want to invest their money in Wall Street. A special class was set up for investment opportunities. An instructor came from no less than Merrill, Lynch, Pierce, Fenner and Smith.

Today the labor people in these courses talk about stocks more fluently than they do about dues stamps. And no bucket shop operator gets a sou of their hard earned money.

So it is easy to learn how not to get taken. It isn't true that a sucker is born every minute. He's not born one, he's turned into one.

What's the matter with all you people out there. If you have nothing better to do with your money, help feed a Cuban refugee.

Neutrals Waking Up

By DAVID LAWRENCE

American Public Opinion Being Offended

The so-called neutral governments are waking up. They are finding out that the people of the West aren't happy over instances of obvious un-neutrality by this same bloc of nations. In rebuttal, explanations now are being offered in their behalf. It is indicated, for example, that the neutrals know very well that the West is right on such issues as nuclear tests but the non-aligned nations, as they call themselves now, fear Russia more than they do the United States. They claim they don't want to offend Moscow.

But something is happening inside this country which should not be overlooked by the non-aligned. American public opinion is being offended. Sentiment is changing.

Foreign aid as such has hardly ledding in the last session of Congress. It will have an even more difficult time in the future. Many members of Congress believe it is in the national interest for this country to use its funds primarily to promote the security of the United States.

The record shows that in recent years a total of more than $6 billion has been provided by the United States to the 24 so-called neutral nations in the form of economic and technical aid as well as military aid. Money for military purposes amounts to less than 15 per cent of the total.

What has the United States gotten out of all these funds? What benefits can the American taxpayers count up as a result of this spending?

The answers usually given are vague. In a general way, it has been money spent to prevent a turn to the Soviet Union and the Communist — bloc countries who operate throughout the world in behalf of Moscow.

THE SITUATION contains elements of blackmail, and the neutral governments know it.

First they talked boldly about refusing aid if there were any strings attached. This turned out to be difficult to define, for nobody knew when a diplomatic favor here and there could be called a string. And, besides, the Soviet Union never attached any strings in advance but merely went ahead to increase the size of its embassies and legations in the neutral countries.

It isn't unusual to find a personnel of several hundred where there had been only a handful before. The Soviet agents then make contact with local organizations and subsidize them and begin to influence international policies. Then comes the take-over of the national government by Communist stooges.

The United States, on the other hand, keeps hands off internal affairs and really tries to improve the economic status of the people through loans and grants that are fully publicized.

The non-aligned countries make a mistake in thinking that this form of aid will continue indefinitely.

The first hint that American policy was becoming more realistic was contained in President Kennedy's recent statement when he signed the authorization for another year of foreign aid. He said: "It is my belief that in the administration of these funds we should give great attention and consideration to those nations who have our view of the world crisis."

This was really more than a hint. It was a straightforward piece of advice to the neutrals to champion not the cause of any group of nations as such but to espouse the fundamental principle of freedom.

Why should they be afraid to come out for genuine ideals in a troubled world?

THEY WOULD GAIN the respect of all mankind if they spoke out forthrightly against tyranny and oppression wherever these appear and if they persistently argued for causes that would advance world peace.

Unfortunately, some of the non-aligned are not practicing what they preach. Their public expressions seem to be directed toward winning the good opinion of Moscow.

India, which has received from the United States nearly $2 billion in economic and technical aid — and not a cent for military help — is a puzzle to the American government.

Prime Minister Nehru every now and then seems to succumb to the influence of his trusted cabinet adviser, Krishna Menon, a known admirer of the Communists and a confidant of Moscow.

Mr. Nehru himself makes a good impression on American officials who visit him but puts his foot in it from time to time with statements that takes the Communist side in East-West controversies.

The conference at Belgrade of the so-called non-aligned nations was intended, of course, to enhance the prestige of the neutral bloc, but it boomeranged.

AMERICAN PUBLIC opinion saw through the transparent hypocrisy of a group of nations which had all along been denouncing atomic tests and then didn't have the courage, in a formal resolution, to condemn the Soviets for resuming such tests at the very moment they were meeting.

Now there's trouble with Ghana, whose president shows signs of trying to play the East off against the West. America had agreed to help substantially in the big Volta River dam project, the estimated total cost of which is $346 million.

The American government is, however, having second thoughts, and the Ghana government has had the temerity to issue a kind of ultimatum to the effect that America must make up its mind by Oct. 13 what it will do on the loan.

This is hardly an auspicious beginning for one of the new African nations.

Ethiopia, incidentally, is suggesting that this bloc should form a regional association. That's a good idea, but most important of all the African nations should first make up their minds whether they really favor Western forms of Democracy or Communist despotism.

Purely Personal

I read every word of a large advertisement in a national magazine about a pill to help people break the tobacco habit because it's my observation that smoking is the cause of more personal unrest than even alcoholism.

When Generalissimo Franco of Spain says his government is getting ready to "restudy" its pacts with the United States, that's a euphemism, son. And what's a euphemism, daddy? It's when you use a sweet-smelling expression for a stinking idea, like "restudy" for "raise the price."

I like the candor that surrounded the firing of Jimmie Dykes as manager of the Cleveland Indians. Everybody had a good word to say for everybody else, except Dykes, who declared he had a lousy bunch of personalities who didn't amount to much as ball-players either and figured his successor would be in the same trouble.

I like the looks of all the new automobiles this year and shudder when I see one of those horrors of a few years ago when designers simultaneously.

It's an odd thing about my working associates who went to faroff places on their vacations that they all came back this year with a conviction that if they weren't where they work and their friends are they would turn it in for a one-way ticket. Other years I thought they seemed glad to be back because they thought there was "no place like home."

NBC's Sunday night documentary on the late Ernest Hemingway seemed first-rate to me, because it explained the Hemingway who could write "The Old Man and the Sea," of which my own younger son said at the age of 14, "I just finished the book and thought it was swell. I understood every word in it."

Hard feelings in California between former Gov. Goodwin J. Knight and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon can be traced in some part to a letter written in 1958 by the wife of former U.S. Sen. William F. Knowland, who said her husband tried to take over the state governorship because Knight was making California a satellite of Walter Reuther's "labor-political empire." Nixon was Knowland's friend and still is.

I wonder why football spectators don't use a kind of boat seat I used once on a fishing vacation—your weight on the thing holds a back rest in place, to get rid of that all-gone feeling in the third quarter. Or do they?

Football Injuries

The spill-young football season has been marked by a greater number of injury accidents than any recent year. Several district scholastic teams have suffered casualties. Nationwide, there have been several fatalities caused by concussion and broken necks.

It is not always true but a team not really in top physical condition for the rough and tumble game that football is usually suffers the worst. Salem Senior High School players, fortunately, are put through rigorous conditioning long before school opens in the fall. This is mandatory not only on the part of the coach but is required by the Board of Education and school administrators. The team physician always is on hand at games.

These are wise precautions because the health and welfare of high school boys is much more important than the score of a game.

Once Over

New York's Tammany Hall got the works from expert in firefighting. Fire Commissioner Ed Cavanagh directed the dismantling of Tammany Madison Ave. de luxe suite and opening of modest tepee in East 48th St.

He made sure the fire under former bosses wasn't put out. Cavanagh, familiar to TV fans for snappy interviews at Gotham blazes, may yet accuse Tiger of violating rules on exits, fire escapes, locked doors and excessive rubbish, if not arson.

It's easy to imagine fire chief's routine in switch from old to new Tammany quarters: Fireman notifies Cavanagh that Carmine deSapio is trapped in smoke on top floor and is about to jump. "Don't stand for any delay: Tell him to jump. And see that a net with hole in it is stretched below," is order.

"There are other Tammany old timers in trouble," says fireman. "You're telling me!" exclaims Cavanagh.

"How about the furnishings? There's a chair Coker once sat in" remarks another member of the Wagner Volunteer Hose Company. "Use the axe on it," is order.

Oil portrait of Charlie Murphy is reported on wall. Cavanagh says, "Throw it out the window with DeSapio's shoes and other junk." "Big tiger skin on wall is in danger of smoke damage," says helper. "Rescue it and you'll be suspended from department," snaps fire chief.

"What about a collection of Indian feathers, Tammany tomahawks, beads and moccasins?" comes excited query. "Let 'em burn" orders Cavanagh, adding as an afterthought, "No, save the tomahawks. They

That George Weiss, the New Haven boy who made good in the big leagues, is a great judge of showmanship was shown by signing Casey Stengel to manage new New York baseball club, the "Mets." Casey at 85 grand a season is a bargain. Win or lose he may win award as National League's best rookie.

The "Mets" may not start as a great ball club, but with Casey at the bat his presence will give club guarantee of a combined TV spectacular, three ring circus, county fair, vaudeville show, amateur night and baseball Olympics.

Weekend Wife

Dear Ann: I'm a widow with three children. Several months ago I met a man who treats me just wonderful. He has asked me to marry him when his divorce becomes final. His wife is stubborn and it may be awhile yet, but we've decided not to let that interfere with our happiness.

He has taken me and the children on some very educational trips. He buys them presents and they are fond of him. Every weekend he does odd job around the house, just the way a husband would.

For my birthday he gave me a beautiful leather purse and inside was a $50 bill. My oldest daughter says I should not accept it. I do not agree with her. After all, I've had him here for week-ends, I've cooked for him and done his laundry. If he wants to give me a few gifts in return I feel I should accept them.

Who is right?—RESPECTABLE.

Dear Respectable: Your signature doesn't match your story. The man you've been and entertaining in your home weekends is married.

Give the purse back — and the man also — to his wife.

Possible Effects Cited of Merger Of Two Railroads

CLEVELAND (AP) — The law director of Youngstown contends a merger of the Chesapeake & Ohio and the Baltimore & Ohio railroads without the New York Central system could hurt the Mahoning Valley economy.

A merger excluding Central would mean damaging freight traffic losses to NYC and would divert a heavy amount of traffic from Central, Samuel S. Fekett said Wednesday. As NYC's competitive capacity fell, Fekett asserted, these things could happen to the Youngstown area: immediate loss of employment and purchasing power and ultimate loss of "our competitive position."

Fekett was one of 20 witnesses at the opening of a three-day Interstate Commerce Commission hearing on rival bids of C&O and Central to acquire control of the financially ailing B&O, which opposed the regional hearings.

Many of the witnesses—including shippers, mayors and representatives of several Ohio cities—contended a C&O-B&O combination would prove ruinous to Central.

"Any unfavorable economic effects created by the New York Central created by unbalanced mergers or stock control situations would have repercussions on its service and create problems for us," testified John S. Durato, traffic and purchasing manager of Metropolitan Brick in Canton.

municate with Knight thereafter only through Edgerton.

Sept. 7—Edgerton tried to call Knight, who was in Sacramento, but could not reach him.

Sept. 8—Knight returned Edgerton's call, got alleged offer, signaled his wife and Mason to listen in on the phone conversation. Edgerton, a former Knight supporter, acknowledged that Knight had called him from Sacramento Sept. 8. But as for offering any deal, he said in a public letter to Knight, "Goodie, this just simply is not the fact."

"Any statement that I made in the conversation was completely without Dick Nixon's knowledge and certainly without any authority."

"It was merely my personal effort to try and prevent another 1958 debacle in the party."

Edgerton was referring to the 1958 Democratic electoral victory when Knight was persuaded to step aside as governor and let former Republican Sen. William F. Knowland run for that position.

Knight ran for Knowland's Senate seat. Both lost badly. (Knight claims—and Nixon denies—that Nixon engineered the switch so he could have complete control of California's GOP organization.)

Edgerton added in his letter to Knight:

"At no time up to the present moment have I ever asked you not to run for the governorship. I did caution you against doing anything prematurely and without getting the counsel and advice of some of your best and oldest political friends. . . ."

"I indicated I still felt Nixon was going to run. . . . I reiterated. . . . that Nixon would be hard to beat. . . . and asked whether you had given any thought to an appointive job of any kind in the event you stayed out of the race and Nixon ended up as governor. I further reiterated the stupidity from a party standpoint of the two of you lambasting each other. . . ."

In a statement following his public letter, Edgerton gave this version Wednesday:

July 21—He invited Knight to his office, the visit had "nothing to do" with Nixon; they had "a general chat about his (Knight's) political plans." Knight did not say he'd be a candidate.

About the end of July—Edgerton invited Howard Ahmanson, a Republican leader and Knight for lunch at his office. They again discussed "the general political situation"—and Nixon had "absolutely nothing to do, directly or indirectly," with this luncheon or the previous meeting.

Aug. 7—The meeting at Nixon's home was arranged by Edgerton at Knight's request.

county chairmen for the annual fund drive next spring.

Galen Greenisen of Salem, chairman of the county fund drive, reported $18,450 was collected in the April drive, an increase of 10 percent over 1960. 50 percent of this amount is used in the county for education, service and research, and 50 percent goes to state and national societies.

William J. Mackey of Salem attended the recent meeting as a member of the county society. He served as chairman of the Salem fund drive this past year and reported that local collections totaled $3,600 which were turned over to the county group.

Mrs. Gertrude Reese, chairman of the cancer prevention study since 1959, distributed material to the county chairmen of the study for the start of the third year phase of the six-year program. The county has chosen to take part in this national survey from which studies are being made in various phases of cancer. Each year for six years the same group of people are followed up and questionnaires answered.

Failure to settle local problems resulted in an outbreak of strikes that crippled General Motors Corp. for two weeks last month before a final settlement was reached with the UAW.

Ford and the UAW already have agreed on a money package paralleling the GM settlement that gives UAW members an increase of more than 12 cents an hour in take-home pay.

Still to be settled at the national level are the union's non-economic demands. These include production standards, grievance procedure, skilled trades problems and sub-contracting of work the union insists should be done by its members.

Both Reuther and Denise are striving for an early settlement—possibly by Saturday or Sunday.

145 Held In Civil Rights Demonstration

MCCOMB, Miss. (AP)—A civil rights demonstration on the City Hall steps resulted in the mass arrest of 144 Negro pupils and one white man.

The group—junior high and high school pupils—was protesting the expulsion from school of four Negroes Wednesday arrested earlier in a chain store sit-in.

Police said several white men punched the lone white demonstrator before police rescued him. He was jailed "for his own protection," police said.

BITTEN BY DOG

Mrs. Horace Schwartz of 645 S. Lincoln Ave., owner of the dog, was told by police to keep the dog tied.

BULLET STOPPER — A sandbag reinforcement shields a U.S. Army checkpoint against stray bullets at the Friedrichstrasse border crossing between East and West Berlin. The barricade was erected after East German police started shooting across border in effort to stop escaping refugees.

Shooting

The bullet missed, and police on both sides drew back.

The two shootings were the most serious since the Communists began erecting their wall of barbed wire and concrete blocks across the heart of Berlin on Aug. 13.

Bernauerstrasse is about the toughest point along the 25-mile wall. The houses there are in Communist territory, the sidewalks in the West.

About 200 West Berliners witnessed the shooting at Bernauerstrasse Wednesday night.

Witnesses gave this account: As darkness fell two men appeared on the flat roof of a building in Bernauerstrasse — the border street where many East Germans have escaped by leaping from buildings into West Berlin.

Communist police spotted the two and ran after them, firing pistols and submachine guns.

Trapped, the two fugitives ran back and forth shouting "help, help." West Berlin police in the street below turned powerful searchlights on the roof in an attempt to blind the Communist police.

A West Berlin police spokesman said shots fired by the East Germans struck a sidewalk near where they and border firemen were standing. The spokesman said the West Berlin police considered this an attack on them and that they were entitled to shoot back.

Five West Berlin policemen, he said, fired 24 shots and one of the bullets hit a Communist policeman, who was dragged away by his comrades.

The shooting incident threatened to heat up the battle of the barricades, waged largely on a propaganda level since the Communists cut Berlin in two with a concrete wall Aug. 13.

Denver Chief Quits In Midst of Scandal

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Worn and disheartened, Police Chief James E. Childers, 69, retired Wednesday four days after burglary charges against another 22 present or former policemen.

"The pressure of the last week makes it so I just can't take it any more," he told reporters. "It's beyond human endurance." Childers' retirement, effective immediately, caught city officials and members of the 786-man police force by surprise.

Safety Manager John M. Schooley, 54, became acting chief. He said a new chief will not be appointed until a reorganization study is completed.

Thirty-five present or former Denver police officers have been charged in connection with a wave of burglaries dating back to 1947.

Only last Saturday, when new charges were disclosed against 22 men, Childers told reporters: "I've never been tagged as a quitter, and I'm not going to quit now."

But his doctor and his wife convinced him, he said, to end 45 years of police work, including 23 months as chief. His resignation was accepted with reluctance by Mayor Dick Batterton.

men between the ages of 60 and 85 gather in the gym of the Memorial Building for four happy hours of cards and games, or 160 come together at the monthly meeting to watch or participate in a program, these are not "statistics"; this is proof of how much the building is appreciated and used by the Senior Citizens who meet in it twice each week.

"When a man can live 84 years and never remember having a birthday party until he joined the Senior Citizens, you feel the whole thing is worthwhile."

"We dare not risk having to curtail this program because someone did not care enough to provide for the continued support of the building through the United Appeal."

There is no "slack" season for activities at the Memorial Building.

More than 450 boys played on 43 teams last spring in the Church League Basketball program which is sponsored by the Memorial Building.

There also was a girls tumbling exhibition put on for the public. This exhibition was performed by girls in three tumbling classes which met at the Memorial Building for instructions every week.

Anyone who drops in at the Memorial Building on a Saturday night this fall will find approximately 250 Junior High School boys and girls dancing and making the gymnasium ring with their noise and laughter.

On Tuesday, Friday and Saturday evenings, approximately 150 Senior High School boys and girls take over the lower level of the Memorial Building in the Youth Canteen. The Canteen is co-sponsored by the Rotary Club. All the physical properties for this youth organization are provided by the Building.

"You may think of the Memorial Building as brick, stone and plaster," Tomlinson remarked, "but to the hundreds of boys and girls, men and women of all ages who use it regularly each week, it is a living, pulsating part of their life."

"In many cases, the Memorial Building is the only place in Salem where these people can come to find recreation and fellowship to give their lives a purpose and a real interest."

One Driver Is Cited After Rt. 62 Mishap

Moderate damage was received by two cars involved in a traffic mishap on Rt. 62, one mile east of Alliance, at 8:30 a.m. Wednesday.

According to highway patrolmen, a westbound auto driven by Connie Keller, 24, of Sebring, sideswiped another westbound car operated by Otis Oscar Waugh, 49, of Alliance, as Waugh attempted to turn his vehicle south.

Miss Keller was cited by patrolmen for failing to stop after an accident.

Tribe Trades Piersall to Senators

NEW YORK (AP)—The Cleveland Indians traded Jimmy Piersall, their fiery center fielder, to the Washington Senators today for Dick Donovan, veteran pitcher, and three other players.

In addition to Donovan, the Indians will get outfielder-catcher Gene Green, utility infielder Jim Mahoney and a third player to be delivered by Jan. 1. No cash was involved.

Piersall, a controversial figure ever since he came up to the American League with the Boston Red Sox 10 years ago, enjoyed his best season in 1961. The 32-year-old Waterbury, Conn., native batted .322 in 121 games, fourth highest in the league, and was one of the best defensive outfielders in the majors.

Donovan also had a fine season with the Senators. The 33-year-old right-hander, after losing his first six decisions, all by low scores, came back spectacularly, winning 10 of his last 14 to finish 10-10. His earned run average of 2.40, fifth best among regular American League pitchers, was more indicative of his fine worth to the ninth-place Senators.

The explosive Piersall, in recent years, made as much news with his extemporaneous stunts on and off the field as with his bat and glove. Only last month, he was accused by a couple of Yankee Stadium fans, who barged out of the right field stands. Piersall on the verdict by felling one antagonist with a punch and another with a kick in the britches.

Stricken with a mental illness in 1953, Piersall made an amazing recovery and received the most courageous athlete award two years later.

Kerr Leads Program At Health Conference

E. S. Kerr, former Salem schools superintendent, was program chairman for the northeast Ohio district health conference being held today at Kent State University.

Representatives of 11 counties are attending.

The conference topic was "The Social Adjustment of Youth."

MAYORS TO MEET

LISBON — A meeting of the Columbiana County Mayors Association will be held this evening at 7:30 at Village Hall. Mayor Ralph Kennedy of Leetonia, president, will preside.

MANEUVERINGS — Russia has announced that the land, sea and air forces of the eight Warsaw Pact nations (shaded on Newsmap) will stage military exercises inside the Iron curtain in October and November. The Warsaw Pact is the Communist counterpart of the West's NATO. At the same time, Russia has protested about NATO maneuvers in Turkey and the Black Sea. U.S. airborne troops and 6th Fleet units are carrying out "Check-mate" exercises with Turkish, British and Greek forces. Russia claims that maneuvers in the Black Sea and the Bosphorus strait (arrow) violate international agreements concerning management of the waters.

Rayburn's Illness May Be Disclosed

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Results of three days of intensive medical tests may disclose today the gravity of an illness that has confined Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn to a hospital since last Monday.

Tests were to continue today, but one of a team of physicians conducting them said "something definite" may be known later in the day. Whether surgery would be necessary depended on the final analysis.

The condition of the 79-year-old Texas Democrat has been listed as "serious" since he entered Baylor Hospital. The latest medical bulletin reported "no significant change in his general condition" and "no definite conclusion" as to his exact condition. When Rayburn left Washington late in August for his home in Bonham he was suffering from what was publicly described as lumbago.

"It's much more serious than that," one of his doctors said after a preliminary examination at Baylor.

Rayburn's spirits seemed to take a lift late Wednesday. He joked with a visitor and griped about the "poking and prodding" tests. He obviously was in pain and seemed more like an active little boy suddenly bedridden by something he couldn't understand.

"Mr. Democrat" of American politics has lost considerable weight and from a layman's viewpoint it would take a lot of recovering for him to regain strength enough to return to Washington when Congress reconvenes next Jan. 10.

Berlin Center Mail Service Is Improved

BERLIN CENTER—Berlin Center residents are getting their mail delivered one hour earlier due to a new time schedule that went into effect Monday.

According to Postmaster Earl Smith, window service at the Post Office will be available from 8 a. m. to 12 noon and from 1 p. m. to 5 p. m. Monday through Friday and from 8 a. m. to 12 noon on Saturdays.

The lobby will be open 15 minutes earlier and 30 minutes later than the windows.

Smith said that 8 a. m. is the deadline for mail to be in the morning dispatch and 5 p. m. the latest for the evening dispatch. The post office is closed on Sundays and holidays.

Countians Get 22 Tons Of Surplus Food

LISBON — Approximately 22 tons of surplus food was distributed in the county in September, according to Welfare Director Robert Bycroft.

The food was issued to 2,896 persons at the four distributing centers, East Liverpool, Salem, Wellsville and Lisbon.

Distribution for October will begin Oct. 16 at Salem.

College Enrollment Boost Pondered by Education Group

WASHINGTON (AP) — College and university officials from across the nation gathered here today to ponder one stark fact of academic life and a host of problems.

The fact: College enrollment will increase by more than 1 million students in the next five years.

The problems: Where are the professors to teach them? The dormitories to house them? The classrooms they need? The laboratories? The laboratories? And what of the thousands of young people who must be turned away?

The American Council on Education, representing 1,222 institutions and organizations, will face up to these questions and countless others in its annual two-day meeting.

The problems are not all in the field of numbers, the council president, Logan Wilson, told a news conference.

"Quantity of education is not enough," said Wilson, formerly president of the University of Texas. "There is also a great need for higher quality. The public is asking for higher standards."

Wilson said there is a need for national standards of excellence in both higher education and the secondary schools — but these standards should be established on a voluntary basis.

Abraham Ribicoff, secretary of health, education and welfare, told council delegates the American people must demand the best in education for their children — and demand it from themselves, state and local agencies and the federal government.

"I believe the American people want their children to receive an excellent education," he said. But he added, "the issue is not in sharp focus for the individual American father and mother."

Ribicoff said, in a prepared address: "When school bonds are voted down in our school districts or boards of education budgets are slashed, there is little righteous indignation heard from parents."

"When states do not meet their responsibilities to colleges and universities little is said. When urgently needed legislation is stalled in a congressional committee by a single vote, the public does not make its voice heard."

In the last congressional session, President Kennedy's federal aid program for public school construction and teachers' salaries failed to clear the House Rules Committee by a single vote.

Quotarians Arrange For Oct. 17 Event

The Salem Quota Club inter-city party is planned for 6:30 p.m. Oct. 17 at the First Methodist Church.

Plans for the event were completed at the regular Club meeting Tuesday at the Smucker House. Reservations are to be made by Oct. 12 with Mrs. Elizabeth Baker, Guest speaker is Mrs. Guy Byers who will give a book review. Mrs. Winifred Byers is general chairman, assisted by the inter-club relations committee, Mrs. Rinie Wark, Mrs. Nell Ogden, Mrs. Goldie Schwartz, Mrs. Mabel Douth, and social committee, Mrs. Forrest Hill, Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Augusta Ibele.

Mrs. Ray Pearce conducted the business meeting, after dinner was served to 21 members. A report of the Federation was given by Miss Eleanor McMurray.

Mrs. Pearce and Mrs. Lester Messersmith reported on the Sixth District conference they attended recently in Columbus. The Quotarians approved the "meals for millions" program for distressed areas overseas.

A Golden Touch

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Hollywood's latest "man with the golden touch" is a 37-year-old former schoolteacher who won fame as a producer after failing in two other careers.

"I've had to make so many comebacks in my life I'm beginning to lose count of them," said Ross Hunter, who has stirred considerable awe in filmdom by turning out seven box office successes in a row.

"I was a has-been at 12. I was an out-of-work tap dancer, and probably the worst in the business," he said. "I was a has-been again at 24 as an actor."

A year-long illness broke up Hunter's promising career as an actor. He had appeared in 29 films, become a bobby sox favorite and was earning $1,000 a week.

"But they forget you fast in this business," he said. "When I was able to go back to work again, no one seemed to remember me. I couldn't find a job."

Hunter decided there was no future in sitting around moaning over his old scrapbooks. He taught high school English and drama, spent his spare time learning film production from the ground up.

Like many a young producer, Ross started by grinding out low-budget cowboy and Indian action thrillers.

In 1954 Hunter talked studio executives into letting him spend $412,000 to make "All Desire," starring Barbara Stanwyck. The picture returned a cool million-dollar profit, and the word went out from the front office, "give the boy what he wants."

Since then Ross has turned out three of the top 10 hits in Universal-International's 49-year history. He helped build or add new luster the careers of such stars as Debbie Reynolds, Rock Hudson, Doris Day, Lana Turner and Sandra Dee.

Four of his films—"Imitation of Life," "Portrait in Black," "Pillow Talk," and "Midnight Lace"—cost a total of less than $6 million to produce and already have brought in nearly $45 million.

"I'm not interested in delivering social messages," he said. "I give the people what they want—entertainment through glamor and beauty."

"I don't believe a housewife wants to leave her own dirty dishes in the sink to go to a movie and watch someone else washing dirty dishes in the sink," he said.

Topics of Interest To Farmers; Notes About Meetings

Farm Women To Meet

Nearly 900 farm women from 16 northeastern Ohio counties, including Columbiana, will meet in Cuyahoga Falls Oct. 18 for the Ohio Farm Bureau women's rally, to be held at the Cathedral of Tomorrow.

Theme of the meeting will be, "Uniting For Peace."

Speakers will be Miss Frances McGovern, member of the public utilities commission of Ohio, and Louis F. Warbington of Sidney, a trustee of the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation.

Miss McGovern, an attorney in Akron, has served three terms in the Ohio House of Representatives. She was voted "outstanding house member" during her third term in 1959, and was honored as Ohio Democratic woman of the year in 1960.

Warbington organized the first four Farm Bureau advisory councils in Shelby county in 1936. The program, now a model studied the world over, is celebrating its 25th anniversary this year.

In The Service

Charles M. Horn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd C. Horn of Ohio Blvd., was accepted for enlistment in the Marines during September and is now undergoing recruit training at the Marine Base, Parris Island, S. C.

Battisti Sworn In As District Judge

CLEVELAND (AP) — Frank J. Battisti of Youngstown was sworn in Wednesday — his 39th birthday — as U.S. district judge for Northern Ohio.

Battisti took the oath from Judge Paul Jones, a native of Youngstown who has served on the federal bench here 38½ years.

The courtroom-filling audience included Cleveland Mayor Anthony J. Celebrezze, Merle J. McCurdy, who is to be sworn in Friday as U. S. district attorney, and members of the American, Ohio, Cleveland, Cuyahoga and Mahoning County bar associations.

Lawrence Keepnews, a New York attorney and Harvard Law School classmate, placed the judicial robe on Judge Battisti's shoulders. Flowers were sent by Gov. and Mrs. Michael V. DiSalle.

Judge Battisti, 21st judge of this district court, is the third from Youngstown. A bachelor, he has been a common pleas judge in Mahoning County.

Agriculturist Plans County Farms Tour

Kenneth V. Battles, agricultural engineer, Ohio State University, will be visiting farms in Columbiana County Oct. 10 and 11, according to Don Myers, county extension agent in agriculture.

Mr. Battles gives technical assistance on construction and remodeling of buildings. Anyone desiring the agricultural engineer to visit them, should contact the agricultural extension office in Lisbon at once, Myers said.

Waffles Are A Tasty Dish

For a pleasant quick to get and delicious supper, serve waffles, plus a tempting dish of crisp bacon, tomato slices, hard-boiled eggs and slices of avocado.

Let each guest select his favorite combination to put on the waffles.

Then over all, pour a warm cheese sauce, made with condensed cream of mushroom soup and instant minced onion. All very easy, all very good.

Western Supper Waffles (Makes 6 servings)

1 (10½-ounce) can cream of mushroom soup, 1 cup shredded process American cheese, ½ cup milk, 1 tablespoon instant minced onion, ¼ teaspoon paprika, ¼ teaspoon salt, 12 slices bacon, 2 ripe tomatoes, 4 hard-boiled eggs, 1 avocado, 6 baked waffles (use frozen waffles if desired).

Blend soup, cheese, milk, onion, paprika and salt in top of double boiler over boiling water. Heat until cheese melts and sauce is hot. Fry bacon until crisp; drain well on absorbent paper.

Cut tomatoes and eggs in thin slices. Cut avocado in halves; remove skin and seed. Arrange bacon strips, tomato, egg and avocado slices on waffles. Top with cheese slices.

Hamburgers, Sauce (Makes 4 to 6 servings)

1 pound ground beef, 1 teaspoon salt, Dash pepper, ¼ teaspoon nutmeg, ¼ cup chopped onion.

Mix all ingredients lightly. Form 4 to 6 patties. Heat 1 tablespoon fat in skillet and cook patties to desired doneness. Serve on hamburger buns with Cold Sauce.

COLD SAUCE

2 cups peeled, chopped tomatoes, ½ cup finely chopped onion, ½ cup finely chopped green pepper, 1 teaspoon oregano, 2 tablespoons wine vinegar, 2 tablespoons olive oil, 1 teaspoon salt, Dash pepper.

Combine all ingredients and chill well. To take to picnic, pack in a pint capacity round paper container.

Curried Lamburgers (Yield: 5 patties)

1 pound ground lean lamb, Onion salt, Garlic salt (optional), ¼ cup softened butter or margarine, ½ to ¾ teaspoon curry powder, 5 hamburger buns.

Shape unseasoned ground lamb into 3-inch patties, ½-inch thick. Sprinkle both sides with the seasoning salts. Place in a folding wire broiler.

Grill over hot bed of charcoal or under broiler, until brown (15 to 20 minutes), turning to brown both sides.

In the meantime, combine butter or margarine with curry powder and spread generously on both sides of the patties. Serve between warm hamburger buns.

NOTE: If desired, sprinkle additional curry powder over the patties in the buns.

M. of October 16, 1961, and then there publicly opened and read for the purchase of Sewer Assessment Bonds of said village in the aggregate sum of $35,000, dated September 1, 1961, numbered from 1 to 35, inclusive, of the denomination of $1,000 each, bearing interest at the rate of four per cent (4%) per annum, payable semi-annually on the 1st day of June and the 1st day of December of each year, commencing June 1, 1962, and maturing $2,000 on December 1 of each year from 1962 to 1981, inclusive, except that $1,000 matures in 1962, 1965, 1969, 1973, and 1977.

The principal amount of bonds will be reduced by the amount of cash payments of assessments prior to the date of sale, in which event, substantially equal annual maturities will be maintained.

Both principal and interest are payable from unlimited taxes at The Citizens Savings Bank, Leetonia, Ohio.

Any one desiring to do so may present a bid or bids for said bonds based upon their bearing a different rate of interest from that hereinabove specified, provided that where a fractional interest rate is bid, such fraction shall be one-eighth of one per cent or a multiple thereof.

Said bonds are issued in anticipation of the collection of special assessments heretofore levied for the purpose of paying part of the cost of constructing a sewage disposal plant and sanitary sewers in the streets of the Village of Washingtonville, constituting the sanitary sewerage system and sewage disposal plant for the village, under authority of the general laws of the State of Ohio, particularly the Uniform Bond Law of the Revised Code, and under and pursuant to Ordinance No. 135-61, adopted by the council of said village on July 13, 1961.

All bids must be accompanied by cash, a bank cashier's or official's check, or a certified check payable to the village, or any combination thereof, equal to at least one per cent (1%) of the amount of the bonds bid for upon condition that if bid is accepted the fiscal officer will deliver the bonds within 30 days of the date of the award, to the successful bidder with the usual delivery papers and a complete, certified transcript of the proceedings, showing the bonds to have been legally issued, and the bidder will receive and pay for such bonds as may be issued as above set forth, said cash or check or combination thereof to be retained by the village and used as full and complete liquidated damages only if said condition is not fulfilled; or said cash or check, or combination thereof, to be returned promptly at the request of the successful bidder if the bonds and transcript are not delivered within the time specified herein.

No conditional bids will be received.

The approving opinion of Peck, Shaffer & Williams, bond attorneys of Cincinnati, Ohio, will be furnished to the successful bidder at his expense in the amount of $250. The village will pay for the printing of the bonds.

The bonds will be delivered under the conditions herein specified at Washingtonville, Ohio. Delivery at any other place shall be by agreement with the purchaser and at his expense.

The bids will be considered and acted upon at a meeting of council on October 16, 1961, or at any adjournment thereof within three (3) days. These bonds will be sold to the highest bidder for not less than the par value thereof and accrued interest, but the right is reserved to reject any and all bids.

Bids should be sealed and endorsed: "BID FOR SEWER ASSESSMENT BONDS"

The Doctor Says

By DR. H. T. HYMAN

Suggested Routine For Heart Patient

A team of heart specialists, working at the Los Angeles College of Medical Evangelists and the John Wesley County Hospital under the auspices of the National Institute of Health, has just issued a "Graded Activity Program for Safe Return to Self-Care after a Myocardial Infarction (Coronary Thrombosis)."

The purpose of this splendid effort were (1) to avoid the harmful effects of prolonged bed rest; (2) to restore the patient's self-confidence in his ability to "get along"; and (3) by means of electrocardiographic monitoring, to prevent "unsafe levels of activity."

The following modification of the program, originally designed for hospitalized patients by the investigators, is tentatively suggested for those taken care of at home by their own physicians. It is to begin between the eighteenth and thirtieth days after the attack and proceed gradually, as outlined below.

Activity Level 1 (In bed). Wash face. Brush teeth. Eat breakfast. Move with assistance from bed to bedside commode and back.

Activity Level 2 (In bed). Repeat each of the following exercises 10 times. Lying flat, take deep breaths. Move shoulders in all directions. Raise right leg 5 times with knee stiff. Raise left leg 5 times with knee stiff. With arms folded across chest, raise shoulders and chest from bed by flexing trunk.

Activity Level 3 (In bed). Repeat each of the following exercises 5 to 10 times. Lying first on one side and then the other, raise thigh with knee stiff. Lying on face, raise first one thigh and then the other with knee stiff. Still lying on face, bend one leg and then the other at knee. Sitting at edge of bed, move shoulders through entire range of motion; bring hands together over head; extend each leg 5 times.

Activity Level 4 (Out of bed). Sit at bedside for sponge bath. Put on robe and slippers. Walk forward and return about 35 feet. If comfortably accomplished, receive bathroom privileges.

Activity Level 5. As level 4, but substitute trousers for bedclothes and increase length of walk to 100 feet.

Activity Level 6. Repeat 5 but substitute shoes for slippers.

Activity Level 7. Make 5 trips up and down 3 or 4 steps. If comfortably accomplished, visit other rooms on same floor.

Here are safeguards that must be observed:

Do not start the program or advance from one to another level without the knowledge and consent of the physician-in-charge.

Do not start the program until sometime between the 18th and the 30th day following the acute attack.

Allow at least 20 minutes for the accomplishment of each level. Do not perform more than a single activity in any one day.

Omit activities on weekends; if you do not feel well; and/or if your pulse rate exceeds 100 per minute; and

Don't count on completing the entire program under four weeks from the date of the original attack.

Ford Shuts Out Reds 2-0; Yanks Go One Up In Series

Terry, Jay Picked To Hurl 2nd Game

NEW YORK (AP) — With an impressive first game victory behind them, the New York Yankees today had jumped from 2½-1 to 4-1 favorites over the Cincinnati Reds as the World Series moved into its second game.

A fair, cool day was predicted for the windup of the opening two-game phase of the series in New York. After Friday off for travel, the firing resumes Saturday in Cincinnati.

Roger Maris, fresh from his 61-home run season, was a bust. And the other half of the Yankees' main slugging punch, Mickey Mantle, was benched. But the Yankees used a simple one-two home run salvo by two lesser-acclaimed heavy hitters — Elston Howard and Bill Skowron — to scuttle the Reds, 2-0, in a tight series opener Wednesday.

Whitey Ford's masterful two-hit pitching gem was the big conversation piece of the opener. It marked the doughty Yankee left-hander's third successive series shutout and put him in position Sunday, in a likely second start, of topping Babe Ruth's record of 29 2-3 consecutive scoreless innings. Ford now has 27. Today's second game, starting at noon (Eastern Standard Time), pits Cincinnati's winningest pitcher, Joey Jay (21-10) against Yankee Ralph Terry (16-3), who last October pitched which Pittsburgh's Bill Mazeroski clouted for a World Series-deciding homer.

Both Teams Change Lineup
Each club was expected to make a slight lineup revision today.

With Mantle, still bothered by an aching hip, expected to sit out again, Yankee Manager Ralph Houk indicated Johnny Blanchard would start in right field instead of Hector Lopez with a right-hander going for the Reds.

Maris, who failed to get the ball out of the infield Wednesday and struck out once, will remain in Mantle's center field spot. And Blanchard figures to provide better punch than Lopez in Maris' customary right field berth.

Cincinnati Manager Fred Hutchinson hinted a Redleg shuffle would move first baseman Gordy Coleman into the fifth batting position and drop right fielder Wally Post and third baseman Gene Freese to sixth and seventh.

With Terry, a right-handed pitcher, Hutchinson prefers to have the left-handed hitting Coleman face Terry ahead of Post and Freese, both right-handers.

However, based on Cincinnati's lack of offense Wednesday, the Reds have a long way to go to strike any terror into the hearts of Yankee pitching.

Only Eddie Kasko, with a first inning single, and Post, slamming a fifth inning single, were able to solve Ford's superb delivery. Ford used only 115 pitches in tying the Reds into knots. But he did get two magnificent fielding assists from third baseman Clete Boyer.

Boyer made a fine play on Freese's smash in the second inning, but he really thrilled the crowd of 62,387 in the eighth as he made a diving stop of pinch-hitter Dick Gernet's blue dart and threw him out from his knees.

The luckless loser was Jim O'Toole, who hadn't yielded a home run since July 28 in 16 regular season games. The Cincinnati lefty, who finished the National League season with a 19-9 record and had won his last eight decisions, was the big series hope of the Redlegs.

He did a strong job of halting the heralded Maris, but the blows of Howard and Skowron simply underscored the fact that the home run lightning is likely to break out anywhere in the well-balanced Yankee lineup.

O'Toole pitched himself out of two bad jams—with the bases loaded in the first, and with two Yankee runners aboard in the fourth. When he was lifted for a pinch-hitter in the eighth, he had yielded six hits. Jim Brosnan finished for the Reds with a hitless eighth, although walking Yogi Berra, who set a series record virtually everytime he picks up a bat or glove.

The Yankee's former star catcher, who now patrols left field in a quaint but efficient fashion, is in his 12th series and Wednesday appeared in his 69th series game.

Ford, 32, from Lake Success, N.Y., issued only one walk and, in striking out six, swelled his own World Series strikeout record to 69. Ford also now holds the undisputed series record with his eight victories. He also has started more World Series games than any other pitcher, 15.

There was nearly a rhubarb in the fifth inning when the busy Boyer, tagging out Post cruising from second to third, was rudely jolted by the 215-pound Redleg outfielder. It was a sort of football brush block which caught Boyer flush in the mouth.

The crowd booed Post lustily. But Boyer said "Post wouldn't have been a good baseball player if he didn't try to knock me out of the baseline."

5—Stance

By SHARON KAY RITCHIE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Don't be in too much of a hurry to start rolling.

This is one of the first things professional bowlers tell you. Get set properly before you start. That's the reason for stressing the importance of the stance.

The word stance is defined as "mode of standing, or being placed." In other words, getting the feet and arms in position. In bowling, it's how you stand and the position of the arms before you begin the approach.

A good stance is natural and comfortable. Usually one stands with the knees bent slightly, feet close together with one foot a little ahead of the other. Tall bowlers often will bend slightly at the waist. Shorter bowlers are inclined to stand more erect.

The weight of the ball should rest on the non-bowling hand while in the stance position. Elbows should be close to sides.

Don't mistake stance for trance. Take time to get set and prepared, but don't stand overlong facing the pins before swinging into action.

NEXT: Pushaway.

Mantle May Be Sidelined Until Sunday

By JOE REICHLER
NEW YORK (AP) — Mickey Mantle definitely will not play in today's second game of the New York-Cincinnati World Series and most likely will not return to the lineup until Sunday, when the Yankees and Reds meet in the fourth game.

The switch hitting slugger, who slammed 54 home runs for the Yankees during the regular season, hasn't fully recovered from minor surgery for the removal of an abscess on his right hip. He sat out Wednesday's opener, won by the Yankees on Whitey Ford's two-hitter and homers by Elston Howard and Bill Skowron.

"I can't play tomorrow," Mantle said emphatically Wednesday night. "The wound is still draining and very painful. I don't have any trouble swinging right-handed, but I can't swing left-handed at all. Also, I can't throw and I can't run, either."

Mantle took batting practice out side. The first time, he couldn't hit a ball out of the infield. In his next turn in the batting cage, he tagged a couple in typical Mantle fashion, one ball winding up in the left field bleachers.

Roger Maris, the other half of the slugging M and M twins, had a bad day at the plate. He failed to hit safely in four trips to the plate, popping up, striking out, grounding out and fouling out to the catcher.

"I don't feel too badly about it," he said, "as long as we won."

Piersall Claims Ford Throws 'Spit Ball'

BOSTON (AP)—Jimmy Piersall—always a controversial player on and off the field—says Yankee pitcher Whitey Ford used a spitball in the World Series opener.

The colorful Cleveland Indians outfielder made the assertion on a television program following the series game Wednesday, then repeated it at his suburban Newton home.

"I know he was using the spitter," said Piersall, "because I know how the pitch acts. He didn't use it often but he used it smartly, at the right spots."

Piersall said Ford "has come up with the spitter because he has lost his fast ball."

In New York, Ford was not available for comment.

Steal Thunder From Stars

3 Rookie Quarterbacks Impressive In NFL

By ROBERT MOORE
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Three rookie quarterbacks are stealing some of the thunder this season from the long-established star signal callers in the National Football League.

The three are Bill Kilmer of the San Francisco 49ers, Norman Snead of the Washington Redskins and Fran Tarkenton of the Minnesota Vikings.

With only three weeks of the long NFL campaign gone, all three have proven impressive and at times spectacular.

Kilmer, formerly wingback in UCLA's single-wing offense, is one of three quarterbacks who alternate at lighting the fuse that sets off the 49ers' novel "shotgun" attack. The 6-foot-1, 195-pounder scored two touchdowns last Sunday in San Francisco's 49-0 triumph over the Detroit Lions.

Kilmer, of Azusa, Calif., is currently eighth among the league's punting leaders. He has booted the ball eight times for an average of 40.9 yards, his longest punt sailing 64 yards.

Despite Washington's failure to win in three starts, Snead has given indication already he intends to continue his habit of setting records. He established 15 Atlantic Coast Conference marks and tied two others during his college career at Wake Forest.

So far, Snead has completed 33 of 87 passes for 488 yards and three touchdowns, good enough to rank him No. 11 among NFL passers statistically.

Snead, a native of Warwick, Va., is 6-foot-4 and weighs 200 pounds.

Tarkenton, the drawing Georgian from Athens, probably made the most sensational debut of the three. He pitched four touchdown passes and scored once himself on a 3-yard run in Minnesota's opener, a stunning 37-13 upset of the Chicago Bears.

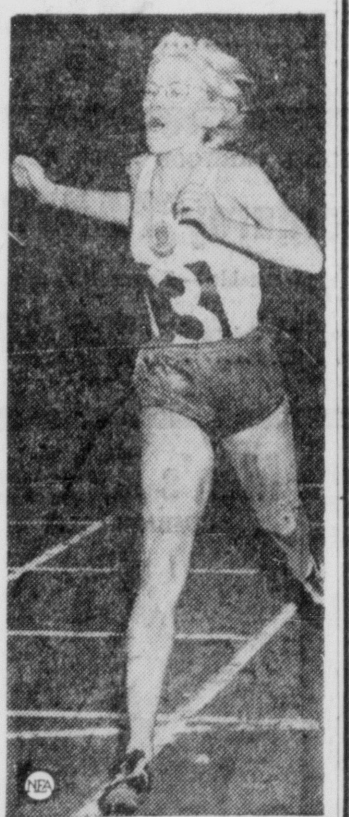

The former captain of the University of Georgia team is eighth in NFL passing statistics. He has completed 25 of 47 passes for 367 yards and an average of 7.81 yards.

Tarkenton, a 6-footer who is 190 pounds, was fifth in passing nationally in college in 1960 and was the Vikings' third draft choice.

Kilmer, Snead and Tarkenton will all be in action again Sunday when NFL teams play their fourth games of the season. The 49ers are hosts to the Los Angeles Rams, the Redskins go to Cleveland, the Vikings entertain the Dallas Cowboys at Minneapolis. Baltimore invades Green Bay. Chicago visits Detroit. Pittsburgh goes to Philadelphia and New York journeys to St. Louis.

Texas A&I Rated First In Grid Poll

NEW YORK (AP) — The Javelins of Texas A&I didn't draw a first-place vote, but managed enough other placings to gain the No. 1 rating today in the first 1961 Associated Press small college football poll.

Texas A&I, which racked up its second straight victory in an impressive 27-13 verdict over Trinity (Tex.) University last weekend, piled up 35 points on the basis of 10 points for first place, 9 for second, etc.

Hillsdale College of Michigan (2-0) and Southeast Louisiana (3-0) each drew one first-place vote, and compiled 27 and 23 points for second and third, respectively.

Hillsdale was idle last week, but previously had beaten St. Joseph's of Indiana and St. Benedict's. Southeast Louisiana's third victory was a 39-0 shutout of Corpus Christi last week.

Wittenberg University of Springfield, Ohio, an Ohio Conference team, was among the second 10 teams in the poll.

Baldwin-Wallace of Berea, Ohio, another Ohio Conference team, was voted 11th in this week's National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) football ratings.

The top 10 (first place votes in parentheses):

1. Texas A&I (35)
2. Hillsdale (1)

Yogi Praises Boyer, Ford For Series Play

By YOGI BERRA
Written for The Associated Press

NEW YORK (AP) — I feel like hanging up my typewriter. So much has happened in the last 24 hours. Maybe I ought to hang up my bat for popping up in the first inning with the bases loaded. But we won the first one and that's all that matters.

No matter what happens in the remaining games there are two Yankees I will always remember. They are Whitey Ford and Clete Boyer. This was the greatest game Whitey ever pitched because of how he got the job done and because he was under pressure.

Redskins Defense Could Stop Browns

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Browns' running backs have their work cut out for them when they test the Washington Redskins here Sunday.

The Redskins have allowed only 267 yards on the ground this year, according to the latest National Football League statistics. They are second only to San Francisco with 216.

The Browns' defensive unit has yielded 294 yards to opponents on the ground.

"Their strength matches what we feel is our strength," Cleveland Coach Paul Brown says. "Nobody has been able to do much running against them this season."

The Redskins are not lacking in offensive punch either. Prentice Gautt, former Brown halfback, is third in the league in rushing with 245 yards.

The 1955 Browns squad will play the 1950 alumni in touch football between halves Sunday.

sure through the seventh inning when he got Gene Freese with a man on. If he'd popped one into the seats it would have been all tied up.

That makes three straight shutouts or 27 scoreless innings in a row for Whitey.

I'd have to go back five years to Don Larsen's perfect game to find a better pitched World Series game. Two singles and a walk because from out in left field it looked like Ford had Frank Robinson fooled on a sharp breaking curve that almost got the inside corner. But Ed Runge (American League umpire) said Robby checked his swing in time and we're not supposed to argue with the men in blue on pitched balls in the series.

Whitey's sinking fast ball, curve and slider were his best pitches and he certainly mixed his pattern well. My hat goes off to Ellie Howard, too, for the game he caught and for the home run he hit.

As to Boyer, well when we played the old Brooklyn Dodgers we thought Billy Cox was a great glove man. Well, Clete Boyer is the greatest. People talk about his "great hands." Heck, they're normal size. It's his reflexes.

Quakers Seek 4th Season Win Against Marietta Friday

Crawford Sidelined; Winters, Hrovatic to Fill In At Tackle

By CARL NANDRASY
News Sports Editor

Small, young and inexperienced is the report this week out of the den of the Marietta Tigers, the Salem Quakers' grid opponent at Reilly Stadium Friday night.

Minus 19 lettermen lost through graduation last year and with only 11 seniors on the 53-man squad, head coach Charles Stocker of the Tigers* is facing a rebuilding year.

Stocker, who is in his second full year at the helm of the Ohio River gridders, has his charges off to a fast start and may wind up with a better season than last year's 7-3 mark. In their first four encounters, the Tigers have triumphed over Greenfield McClain 30-16, Bellaire 8-7, and Bellaire 46-28, while dropping a close one to Williamstown, W. Va., 6-14.

A big feather in the Marietta hat is the win over highly-rated Bellaire. However, hot weather may have played a big part in the final verdict. The game was called in the third period on the afternoon of Sept. 23 because many of the players on both sides had passed out from the extreme heat on the field.

Coach Stocker this season is attempting to rebuild for next year, when he hopes to field another power like the 1959 version of the Tigers, which wound up fifth in the state with a 9-0 record.

HEADING UP the 1961 Bengals will be junior left halfback Bill Warden, an 183-pound bruiser who has been tremendous in the early season games. Warden is the Tigers' leading ball carrier with 328 yards in 36 jaunts for a 9.1 average. He has also scored 28 markers on four TD's and four extra points.

Although Warden has been the standout runner, three other Marietta backfield men have highly-impressive rushing averages. Ron Sprague, a 148-pound senior fullback, has lugged the pigskin 266 yards in 38 tries for a 7.0 average. James Apple, a 195-pound senior fullback who alternates with Sprague, has a 5.0 yard rushing average, and right halfback Charles Williams, 143-pound junior, is sporting a 5.7 yard running average.

Closing out the Bengal backfield is quarterback Randy Ward, a 140-pound sophomore. According to early-season reports, lightweight Ward is the inexperience in the Tiger attack, however Coach Stocker is content on going along with him so he can gain poise for the next two seasons.

According to scouting reports, Marietta is not a passing ball club and is content to go it mostly on the ground. Thus far Ward has tossed 24 passes, completing nine for 121 yards. Overland, the Bengals have piled up 997 yards in the four games.

At the Tigers' end positions, it will be 160-pound senior Steve Miller on the left, and 166-pound senior Phil Wright on the right. Both stand 5-9.

THE TACKLE SLOTS will be manned by seniors Jeff Robinson, 175-pounds, on the left, and Brad Ruben, 205-pounds, on the right.

The Tigers will employ a straight T formation offense with slight variations, the variations being the shifting of Warden into different slots in the backfield to utilize his speed and driving power. Defensively, the visitors will utilize the standard Oklahoma formation.

Salem Coach Blaine Morton, who had his scouts at the Marietta-Belpre game last week, considers the Tigers a sound ball club and expects a tough game. "They may be light and inexperienced," Morton said, "but any team that can score three touchdowns in four plays has to have something."

Morton was referring to Marietta's tilt with Belpre last week, when the Bengals scored the first three times they got the ball. The Tigers scored on their first play from scrimmage from 65 yards out, and then scored again on their first play from seven yards out after Belpre had fumbled. Then on the next Marietta series of downs, the Bengals took two plays to go the distance again for a third TD.

THE SALEM MENTOR will have another worry Friday night when Salem's regular starting right tackle, Butch Crawford, may have to sit out the contest with a badly-bruised right leg tendon. The 202-pound stalwart Quaker lineman originally injured the leg in the Ravenna game two weeks ago and aggravated the injury in the first quarter last week at Farrell, Pa. He was forced to sit out the remainder of the fray.

According to Morton, Crawford will dress for the game Friday and be pressed into action only if needed. Morton hopes a rest for Crawford will cause the leg to heal sufficiently for the bruising lineman to be ready full-strength for Akron Hoban next week.

Selected to fill in for Crawford at right tackle are juniors Bill Winter, 194 pounds, and Rudy Hrovatic, 185 pounds. Morton did not say which one would start, but hinted that both would probably see equal action.

OTHER THAN Crawford's injury, the Quakers appear in high gear for the encounter. The remainder of the starting lineup will be the same as last week's.

Seniors John Panezotti, 163 pounds, and Bob Steele, 164 pounds, will hold down the end slots. Senior Ty Enders at 196 pounds will be at left tackle, while seniors Roger DeCrow, 163, and Bob Oswald, 160, start at the guard positions. Junior George Johnson, 184, will be the center.

Several important issues will be discussed tonight at the Salem Booster Club meeting, to be held at the Memorial Building at 7:30 p.m., according to president Dick Loutzenhizer.

Coach Blaine Morton will speak and show movies of last week's game against Farr ell, Pa.

All members are urged to attend and report on progress of the membership drive.

Meets Wyoming Saturday

Unbeaten Utah State Seeks Skyline Crown

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

Jack Larscheid is a diminutive lad, who is never known for an excess of words around the Utah State campus, nor in its football locker room.

But this Saturday the native of Pleasant Hill, Calif., is going to have a lot to say on the football field at Laramie, Wyoming about the Skyline Conference.

The Aggies take on power-packed Wyoming, led by its all-round quarterback Chuck Lamson, and the winner could possibly count the Skyline Title for 1961 as its own.

Larscheid, an all-conference selection who was voted conference back of the year last season, could prove the difference. So far this season he has paced the Aggies to a 3-0 record, scoring three touchdowns.

It has been his elusiveness and dangerous running that have opened up the defenses.

The question is: Can Wyoming silence Larscheid long enough to muffle Utah State's bid for its second straight conference title.

Arkansas and Texas Christian will be wondering the same thing about their big boys when the Porkers' Lance Alworth goes against TCU and quarterback Sonny Gibbs Saturday in a crucial Southwest Conference test that has the Horned Frogs keying on the speedy Alworth. They even had dash star Jerry Jack Terrell, ineligible for football this year, wearing Alworth's number in a scrimmage.

Joe Romig, Colorado's all-around guard, felt no trouble in his ailing leg after Wednesday's workout and appears ready for the Buffalo's Big Eight game against Kansas.

United Local Battles With Beaver Local For Top Spot In Columbiana County Grid Race

By LYNN BROWNE
News Sports Writer

The Golden Eagles of United Local will play host to the Beaver Local Beavers Saturday in what stacks up to be the top game in the county this weekend.

Coach Ray Russell's Golden Eagles currently reign as king in the mythical Columbiana County League with a 4-0 record and tops in the Turnpike Conference with a 2-0 mark. The Beavers, coached by Jack O'Rourke, are rated the second team in the county at 3-0-1.

Neither team has suffered a loss this year, but Beaver Local was tied 14-14 by Leetonia in the season opener. However, since that time the Beavers' defensive team hasn't allowed a score while the powerful offensive unit has rolled up 110 points.

United has recorded wins over

Chester, W. Va., Crestview, Springfield Local and Jackson Milton.

It appears the only way to compare the two teams is by the fact they both have posted wins over Chester. United handed Chester a 14-8 defeat and the Beavers rolled over them 40-0. By this comparison, the Beavers would be a theoretical five touchdown favorite.

Commenting on the upcoming game Coach Russell, who has been holding closed practice sessions this week, stated that he feels it will be a "fast, quick team battling a slow, heavier team." United outweighs Beaver Local but the Beavers have three fast backs in Mike Klembara, Carl Hoppel and Francis Passage.

record and a 1-3 season mark. They upset North Lima 18-6 last week and lost by only two TD's to league-leading Lowellville the week before after losing 72-0 to Perry in their opener and 23-6 to United Local in the second game.

In other weekend action involving area grid squads, the Minerva Lions will battle the somewhat hapless Bears at Leetonia, and Poland will be at Sebring to take on the last place Trojans, rounding out Tri-County League play.

Action not involving league standings will see Lowellville at Bessemer Mohawk, North Canton at Louisville, New Philadelphia at Wellsville, Canfield at Columbiana, Canton Central Catholic at East Liverpool, Salineville at Stanton Local, Northwestern at Greenford, North Lima at Jackson-Milton, Ashtabula Edgewood at Warren St. Mary's, West Branch vs Massillon reserves at Salem and Western Reserve vs Mineral Ridge at Sebring.

Will Use Pitching Formula

Reds' Jay Undaunted By Powerful Yankees

By HAROLD HARRISON
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The Cincinnati Reds are one down to the New York Yankees in the 1961 World Series but the Yankees still don't frighten Joey Jay.

with a 21-10 record.

There were plenty of "ifs" in Wednesday's postgame discussion.

One of them involved the first inning. Eddie Kasko singled with one out and Vada Pinson hit deep to center, where Roger Maris made the catch.

Jay is scheduled to pitch today against the Yanks. He sat and watched Wednesday as Whitey Ford shut out the Reds, 2-0, allowing only two hits. He also sat and watched as Elston Howard and Bill Skowron hit home runs off Jim O'Toole, providing the margin of victory.

That would have been over the fence or off the wall in Crosley Field," was the comment.

In the fifth, Gene Freese hit one to left after Wally Post had gotten Cincinnati's only other hit. It also was an "if" job, since a nice catch by Yogi Berra kept it from dropping in — maybe for a double.

After it was all over Jay said: "I know how I'm going to pitch against them and that's the way I'm going to do it."

He didn't disclose his formula.

Jay is the pitcher the Reds acquired during the off-season in a trade with the Milwaukee Braves.

He's a one-time Little League who graduated into a big league. He never had won more than nine games in his major league career until he finished the 1961 season

Reds' Manager Fred Hutchinson was quick to praise the pitching of Ford.

He also praised his own starter, O'Toole.

"The only thing he (O'Toole) could have done was shut them out," Hutchinson said. "The other guy just pitched a little better," he added.

TOUCHDOWN HERO — Nancy Albert, daughter of former Stanford star quarterback Frankie Albert, plays admiring coed. Her hero is Chuck Butler, Stanford's 1961 quarterback sensation. Nancy is a freshman at the university.

PRECISION PERFORMERS — Adding charm and precision to the halftime shows at the Salem Quakers football games this year are the five majorettes pictured above. When the grid season ends, the girls will resume their place in the band as musicians. Left to right they are Sue White, Lynne Miller, Betsy Heston, Lois Domencetti and Susan Mathews.

Second Alliance Appearance

Mount Meets Wooster In Conference Action

Mount Union College makes its second home appearance of the season against the College of Wooster Saturday night with both teams attempting to garner their second straight Ohio Conference win.

Coach Duke Barret is continuing work on the Mount defense to meet Wooster's "grind 'em out" attack.

In the series, Wooster won last year 28-12 and has a 27-15 edge in the series with 4 ties.

Wooster dumped Kenyon last week while Mount took a thriller 12-7 from Marietta. Mount is 1-1 while Wooster is 2-0, the Scotts' other win coming over Ashland.

Mount's tremendous defensive play was the key factor in the Marietta victory, particularly when Marietta was unable to score after getting a first down on the Raider 13 late in the game.

Ralph Roberts again paced Mount with 74 yards in 18 carries. He broke loose in the second quarter for a 38 yard TD jaunt in which he eluded the entire secondary on his twisting, turning sprint.

Freshman quarterback Tom Sirgo, who looks better every game, teamed up with halfback Bob Hutton on a 36 yard pass play for the Raiders winning tally.

Halfback Hugh Wilson has been lost to the team for approximately four weeks with a hairline fracture of the ankle. Tackle George Daily of Salem and cornerback Ben Heilmann are ready for full-time duty after recovering from early season injuries.

Golfer Don Whitt registered back-to-back eagles in the 1956 Phoenix Open and in the 1958 Montebello Open. He won the latter.

Dow Finsterwald placed second to Doug Sanders in the 1956 Canadian Open, the 1958 Western Open and the 1959 Coral Gables Open.

Reds Admit Mastery By Pitcher Ford

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The Cincinnati Reds admitted today, almost to a man, that if they had to face Whitey Ford every day, they might as well fold their tents and go home.

Ford, the only native-born member of the New York Yankees, mowed the Reds down, 2-0, on a slick 2-hitter to give the Yanks a 1-0 World Series edge Wednesday.

A couple of the Reds even paid him the supreme compliment of comparing him with Warren Spahn as the top left-hander they ever had faced.

"He had more stuff than Spahn yesterday," said first baseman Gordy Coleman. "But, gosh, how many days can a guy throw a 2-hitter?"

Only Eddie Kasko and Wally Post got hits off Ford, both singles. He completely throttled the Reds' big guns, Frank Robinson and Vada Pinson.

"He kept pitching me tight and getting me out," said Robinson, who struck out in both his official at-bats. "He sure surprised me with all the fast balls he threw."

Observed Pinson: "Ford is faster than Spahn. He pitches his game. He never gave us a chance."

Ford's victory Wednesday gave him eight in the World Series, breaking his tie with Red Ruffing and Allie Reynolds, both former Yankees. The shutout also gave him 27 consecutive scoreless innings. Three more and he'll break Babe Ruth's World Series record of 29 2-3 back in the days before the Babe became an outfielder.

Buckeyes Put Through 'Wide Open' Workout

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—It was unexpected and Coach Woody Hayes wouldn't promise that fans at Saturday's UCLA game would see it, but Ohio State's Buckeyes turned on a sparkling display of wide-open football Wednesday.

Hayes opened up all the stops as he ran his charges through their afternoon training session. He seemed very pleased with the results.

"Practice was much better to night," the Buck coach commented. "The kids were sharp, real sharp."

Former U.S. Open golf champion Dick Mayer says "Doug Sanders hits the ball with nervous energy, but the ball usually goes straight."

Dave Ragan Jr., Don Bisplinghoff, Pat Schwab and Doug Sanders played on the same University of Florida golf team. Sanders was team captain.
